THE SUMMIT

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT ASHEVILLE
VOLUME 28 1973

With packed bags, eager anticipation, and a mind full of summer memories, We came together in sunny August to share . . .
Ahead was a year that would change our lives, filled with dances, classes, parties, discussions, new and old friendships . . .
We knew when Spring came we would be changed . . .
As new as the spring breeze, filled with the excitement of the past year and the promise of another ahead . . .
We settled into the new routine . . . laughed . . . cried and waited for time to perform its miracle . . .
In those days we looked ahead . . . And now we remember

Try To Remember the kind of September
when life was slow and oh, so mellow.
Try To Remember the kind of September
when grass was green and grain was yellow.
Try To Remember the kind of September
when you were a tender and callow fellow.
Try To Remember and if you remember then follow .

SEPTEMBER

Summer breeze
Makes me feel fine,
Blowing through the jasmine
In my mind.

Along with the last month of sunny skies and warm weather, came the beginning of classes and activities for UNC-A Students. September gave way to soccer games, peace rallies, dances, and, of course, studying.

All the leaves are brown
and the skies are gray,
fall returns
and September slips away . . .

Shadows fall, winter comes
The white snow goose hears the baying wind
Watches the virgin reflection shimmering
In the black deep water,
Sees blossoms soon to fall.

Soon to wing the falling day
To find a warm place in the autumn sun
See your shadow on the crisp earth below
The place where blossoms fell,
Soon covered in winter snow.

November came as a month of excitement and change. It was the time our nation chose its leaders. It was a time of changing from autumn to winter. The first frost, the first freeze came and nature became transformed. It was also a time of outdoor activities; soccer not quite ready to relent to basketball, basketball reaching to take its place, playing football on the student center lawn, outdoor drama on the library steps. These are only a few of the things November left imbedded in our memory, as the month traveled over UNCA's campus leaving her mark.

SOCCER

On cold winter days I have seen times
When nude without cover
You gently moved the brilliant orb
Across uneventful space
Then I preferred you nude.

I have seen you too, streaked
Red, yellow and purple in twilight
Shimmering gossamer lining
Bright gold where you kiss the earth
Then I prefer you streaked.

Now I prefer you dressed
In this white fleecy mosaic.
Cold over blue filtering hot sun
To the brown winter earth.
You reluctantly change into night.

AN EXAMPLE OF BOLDLY INNOVATIVE AND EXPERIMENTAL EDUCATIONAL CONCEPTS

These twentieth century shards,
deposits of "our new age",
silenced now with best regards,
electric picture cage.

Announce the Peace, idiot box,
we're anxious to be told,
here lay you, parts askew
in horizontal hold!

The speed at which I pass the trees
Not on a ski but on my knees
Suggests these postures on the slope
Are not the very best I hope.

You give to me your best regard
And I HAVE tried, you know how hard
And taken too your best advice
But still I end up on my ice.

Always, Always, pick on me,
Never, Never, let me be,
But I know what I'll do by and by,
I'll eat some worms and then I'll die.
Then you all just wait and see,
You'll be sorry you picked on me.

You are the image of time past still.
I've moved here since . . .
Have reflected women and silk dresses . . . parisols,
Children playing, caught the falling leaves and bouncing balls
Sunny days I've seen since . . .
And deer, birds, fauna of these copper hills,
Watered laurel, caused fragrance from new blossoms, frills,
Listen to me bearded man! I can save you;
Do you hear me bearded man?

Praise the spells and bless the charms,
I found April in my arms.
April golden, April cloudy,
Gracious, cruel, tender, rowdy;
April soft in flowered languor,
April cold with sudden anger,
Ever changing, ever true —
I love April, I love you.

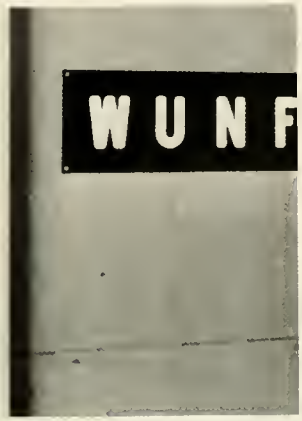
WUNF AM-FM



WUNF-AM began as nothing more than a dream and a work shop. Now that dream has turned into a fantastic reality. Today WUNF-AM-FM is quickly becoming the voice of UNC-A. As soon as the FM section goes on the air in the fall of 1973 WUNF AM-FM will extend a hand of the university to the entire Asheville community. This will enable the university to reach many more Ashevillians than ever before. The prospect of this increased communication and growth is extremely exciting for all those concerned.

I will be happy

Adjust myself to what is

Exercise, care for and nourish my body

Strengthen my mind

Do somebody a good turn and not get found out

Do two things I don't want to

I will be agreeable, dress becomingly, talk low, act courteously, praise others, and not try to regulate or improve anyone.

Deal with today

Have a program

Quiet time, four times of prayer, Bible read

Try to relax and not worry

"Just for today I will be unafraid, especially I will not be afraid to be happy, to enjoy what is beautiful to love — to believe those I love, love me."
